

Daily Devotion for October 20, 2021

“For my house will be called a house of prayer for all nations.” Isaiah 56:7

In my devotion yesterday I wrote about the 17 missionaries that had been kidnapped by a street gang in Haiti. The recent update mentioned that the “400 Mawozo” gang has made a demand for 17 million dollars, one million for each of the missionaries. It was also reported that the FBI is on the ground in Haiti working with Haitian authorities to resolve this crisis.

The prophet Isaiah spoke 2500 years ago that the church of God, God’s People, God’s House, should be a house of prayer for all nations. As we look at what is happening in Haiti and other places around the world it is a good reminder to us that God is a missionary God. This is the opportunity for the church to intercede on behalf of our world to make the necessary changes that will bring about liberty, freedom and justice for all. Let’s pray that we will be that church, a church for the nations.

Thought For Today: How much time do you spend praying for our nation and the nations of the world? Take time to today to pray for our nation and the nations of the world. Pray for Psalm 89:14 that righteousness and justice will be accomplished.

Today’s Prayer Focus: Pray that El Estero will be a house of prayer for all the nations! Thank God that He is a missionary God who loves people from every land, nation, tribe and tongue. Deo Volente.
