

Daily Devotion For May 17, 2021

And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow cold. But he who endures to the end shall be saved. And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come." Matthew 24:12-14

As the calendar shows that we are in the midst of spring, we are able to see the spring flowers and wildflowers blossoming. Earlier in the week we were able to see the temperatures rise and the sun shining. Weather in Monterey is always unpredictable. The past two mornings have been overcast and drizzly. I'm not sure about you, but I like warm and sunny weather.

As the weather has dipped the past few days, I wonder how many people's spiritual life has dipped and cooled off. Jesus said in Matthew 24 that in the last days, the love of people will grow cold towards God. As we look at our country, we also see that many lives have grown cold to the things of God. But, as Christians we need to make sure that we are not allowing the world to numb us with its coldness but rather we ought to be warming up the world around us with the Love of God.

Thought For Today: At this moment, how is your temperature? Are you Hot, Cold, or Lukewarm towards God and the things of God. Ask the Lord to fill you with the warmth of His Son and that you will be able to radiate that warmth to others.

Today's Prayer Focus: Take time to review this week's updated prayer fuel and select a few prayer points. Deo Volente.
