

Daily Devotion For March 18, 2021

All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right. – 2 Timothy 3:16

On Tuesday evening, my friend Pat Zukeran, founder and president of “Evidence and Answers” shared a message via zoom on the Authority and Reliability of God’s Word. I was grateful that people from El Estero, Wintersburg, and the Union Church of Los Angeles were able to attend.

I admire people who have learned from their mistakes. I wish I did a better job with that because I’ve made a lot of mistakes. However, a better way to learn and grow is to have God’s Word show us where we need to change and grow. That is a less painful and more effective way and in the end, it helps us trust God more.

When we take the time to read the Bible and let it correct us and show us the best way to live we are being instructed the way God intended for us. We are able to avoid pitfalls and circumstances that He knows would hurt us. Just like a loving father, God our heavenly Father wants us to live a life of joy and fulfillment. God knows what’s best for us and that is why He has given us His Word.

Thought For Today: Take time to not only read the Bible but let it speak to you. If something stands out and shows you that your current path isn’t the best, decide to follow the Bible over your feelings. This is what trusting God is all about; not leaning to your own understanding but His.

Today’s Prayer Focus: Continue to pray this week's prayer fuel. Deo Volente.
