

Daily Devotion For April 12, 2021

“But nothing unclean will ever enter it, nor anyone who does what is detestable or false, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.” Revelation 21:27

Yesterday I was very happy to see that Hideki Matsuyama was the winner at the Master's Golf Tournament in August Georgia. I'm sure that the nation of Japan is rejoicing as Hideki becomes the first Japanese player to win a major championship. Entering the final round he had a 4 shot lead and it was a nail biter as he fought the good fight and ended up winning by one stroke. Now he joins a great crowd of champions like Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, Tiger Woods, among other greats whose names have been inscribed on the Master's Championship Trophy. His name is now written in the record books.

We may not be numbered with the greatest golfers of all time, but we too can be numbered with a great crowd of believers who have fought the good fight and whose names are written in “THE MASTER'S” record book, the Lamb's Book of Life. Names like King David, the Apostle Paul, Billy Graham, Martin Luther among others.

Thought For Today: Take time to rejoice today that your name is written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

Today's Prayer Focus: Thank God for the love of our Master who bore the penalty for our sins at the cross of Calvary so that we might know the forgiveness of sins and now have our names written in the Master's Book of Life. Take time to review the updated prayer fuel and add them to your daily prayers. Deo Volente.
