

Daily Devotion For January 5, 2021

“And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.” Colossians 3:17.

Every January, millions of people begin their year by making New Year’s resolutions. Maybe it’s to lose weight, get organized, exercise more, eat healthier, and manage their finances better. Often times however, the resolutions we make on January 1st are broken by January 5th. Oops, that’s today isn’t it!

But what about making spiritual New Year’s resolutions? Have you considered making one? Maybe to begin a bible reading program to take you through the Bible in one year, to seek God’s face in prayer every day, to share your faith with another person this year or to disciple someone who is younger in the faith, resolve to have a better attitude, etc. God would be honored if you made a spiritual resolution for this year.

Thought For Today: Have you considered making a spiritual resolution in 2021? What could you do to help you grow closer to the Lord this coming year?

Today’s Prayer Focus: Remember to keep in prayer those who are grieving the loss of loved ones and are in need of God’s healing touch. Continue to pray through this week’s prayer fuel. Deo Volente.
