

Daily Devotion For November 26, 2021

It is good to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praises to the Most High. It is good to proclaim your unfailing love in the morning, your faithfulness in the evening, accompanied by the ten-stringed harp and the melody of the lyre. You thrill me, LORD, with all you have done for me! I sing for joy because of what you have done. -Psalm 92:1-4

I hope you had a wonderful and blessed Thanksgiving yesterday. Sometimes, the prayer that pleases God most is a simple "Thank you." Like a good parent, God loves to provide for his children. Since the beginning, he has been an amazingly generous Creator and Father.

To say "Thank you" is to say "I see you, Lord. I see your provision, I see your kindness, I see your blessings in all that I enjoy. As I mentioned in yesterday's devotion, I hope you that you had the opportunity to not only express gratitude for all your blessings but also to give praise and thanksgiving to God who is the source of all blessings. Scripture continually says, "O give thanks to the Lord."

Thought For Today: Remember, Thanksgiving is not just one day out of the year but something that we can and should do each and every day. Today, continue to express your heartfelt gratitude to God for all his blessings. Once again, take a few moments to notice the many ways He has provided for you. O give thanks to the Lord!

Today's Prayer Focus: Once again, remember to give thanks to God for your daily blessings. Deo Volente.
