

Daily Devotion For September 9, 2021

“Indeed, the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Don't be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.” Luke 12:7

Last night, Sherry came to me and asked if I would cut her hair. It must have been about a year ago since I last cut her hair. I asked how much she wanted me to cut and after some discussion I cut about 9 inches. Now, she plans to donate her hair to an agency that makes wigs for cancer patients.

Some people have a hard time believing that God is interested in the details of our lives. But Luke 12:7 tells us that God knows the number of hairs on our head. This shows us that no detail of our lives is a small detail to God. Not only does God know the details of our lives but he cares about every detail of our lives. Nothing is a small detail to God.

When you rejoice God rejoices. When you hurt, God hurts. This means that God knows how you are feeling and what you are up to. He knows what you are thinking and what you desire. He knows your joys and your sorrows. He knows your victories and your defeats. He knows your anxieties and how confident you feel. That's why you can share everything with Him; that's why the gift of prayer is such a wonderful gift.

Prayer is simply talking to God. You can share anything and everything with God because He cares and He listens (1 Peter 5:7). He never tunes you out. He is always there for you.

Thought For Today and: Today remember that you can share anything and everything with God because He cares and listens to you.

Today's Prayer Focus Let God know what you are thinking and what you are feeling. Pray for His hand of blessing over your life and His touch of love in your heart. Pray for His wisdom and for His will to be done. Give Him praise and thanks for being the God of every detail of your life and always wanting what is best for you.
