“When [Jesus] had come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, ‘Who is this?’ Matthew 21:10

As Jesus entered Jerusalem on that first Palm Sunday, the people were asking, “Who is this?” That is a question that needed to be answered not only in the first century, but also today. Some people say that Jesus was a great teacher, a moral leader, or another of the long line of prophets. C.S. Lewis said that there are only three possibilities when it comes to Jesus’ identity. He was a liar, falsely claiming to be God; He was a lunatic, bona fide crazy and delusional, out of touch with reality; or He was, in fact, who He said He was, the Son of God, Lord.

Thought For Today: Who do you say that Jesus is? Was He a liar, a figure out of history who made some outrageous and completely untrue claims about Himself? Was He a lunatic, some crazed prophet from the middle of nowhere with illusions of grandeur and delusions of deity? Or is Jesus Lord? Your eternal destiny rests on your answer. I invite you to join us this morning for our El Estero Zoom Worship service as we exclaim, “Jesus is Lord!”

Today’s Prayer Focus: Continue to pray this week’s prayer fuel and for those who are in need of God’s love, presence, and peace. Deo Volente.
