

Daily Devotion For June 15, 2021

“Make sure that you present to me at the appointed time my food offerings...”. Numbers 28:2

Sunday June 13th was the first time that I can not recall attending church in years. Even when I have been on vacation, I have always made time to attend a church service wherever I was. But Sunday, as I was on a family vacation, we had a family brunch before everyone scattered and went on their own way.

Sunday's are typically called “The Lord's Day” based on Revelation 1:10. It is to celebrate that Jesus rose from the dead on the first day of the week. The Lord's Day is set apart from other days of the week to gather with God's people, to thank God for the life we have in Christ, to pray and give and to hear God's Word. There is something special about beginning the week centering and focusing on God.

In Number 28, Moses commanded Israel to bring a series of offerings to God. There were daily offerings, weekly offerings, monthly offerings and yearly festivals. Israel's calendar was full, but the life of the Israelites was ordered so that God would be at the center of their lives. God was seeking that even amidst the busyness of their lives that worship was not drown out by other activities.

Thought For Today: Is worship a priority for you and your family. Is your life centered and ordered around the worship of God? It is hard to thrive spiritually when we neglect the sacred times God calls us to build into our lives.

Today's Prayer Focus: Thank God for securing a day of worship so that we can remember His resurrection. If you missed church on Sunday as I did, worship the Lord today. Sing, praise, and pray to the Lord celebrating our life in Christ.
