

Daily Devotion For June 12, 2020

4 As long as it is day, we must do the works of him who sent me. Night is coming, when no one can work." John 9:4

As I was watching the continuing coverage of the George Floyd killing and the aftermath of dialogue that is taking place in the news media, one African American pastor said, "The time is now." My take on this was that he was saying the time is now to act and move to get rid of the systemic racism that has pervaded our nation for centuries. There have been short lived movements throughout history to put an end to racism, but many that I hear on the news say that something is different now. More young people are taking to the streets and the energy that is taking place across the nation is fueling the momentum that now is the time to make a significant changes.

In John 9:4 Jesus said, "As long as it is day, we must do the work of him who sent me." We are not guaranteed tomorrow so we must act today. Do you intend to read the bible more, pray more, witness more, serve more, invest your finances for the Lord's kingdom? God's Word teaches us to do it now. "Night is coming, when no one can work."

Thought For Today: What did Jesus say that we should be doing as long as it is day? What have you been putting off that needs to be done today? What work has God given you to do?

Today's Prayer Focus: Continue to pray for health and strength for John Mitchell and God's peace and comfort for the Kuwatani family. Add this week's prayer fuel to your daily prayers. God Bless!
