He will call on me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honor him." Psalm 91:15

Yesterday while I was working out at Gold's Gym, I had the opportunity to have a brief conversation with "Mr. October" Reggie Jackson. I hadn't seen him since before the Shelter in Place and so I asked him how he had fared through the Covid-19 pandemic. Last week I also had brief conversations with Jerry Rice, Marcus Allen, Blair O'Neal, Steph and Seth Curry.

As exciting as it is to talk with these sports celebrities, have you ever pondered what an even greater joy and privilege it is to have a conversation with God? The God who spoke and all creation came into existence. The God who loves us with an everlasting love. The God for whom nothing is impossible or too difficult. The God who is always there for us when we need him. And the God who has promised us that He will never leave us nor forsake us.

Such is the great privilege we have through prayer. Prayer is simply a conversation with God. In Psalm 91:15 God says call on me and I will answer you.

Thought For Today: Who is the most well-known or famous person you have had the opportunity to have a conversation with? Now, consider what an even greater opportunity we have to have a daily conversation with God. Won't you call on God today??

Today's Prayer Focus: Take time today to thank God for the privilege of prayer. That we can come into his presence at anytime and under any circumstances and know that He is there for us. Continue to pray this week's prayer fuel. Deo Volente.
