

Daily Devotion For April 6, 2021,

“Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you....” Luke 24:5-6

Before Jesus went to the cross and to the tomb, he left his disciples many promises. The words, “He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you...,” is just one of the countless promises Jesus left. As you read this daily devotion, what promises come to your mind? Can you think of any? What is your favorite promise from God’s Word? By rising from the dead Jesus showed that His promises are trustworthy and reliable. The Word of God contains over 6,000 promises.

Now, why should you know and remember God’s promises? One reason is that when we do not know the promises of God we tend to worry about everything. When you know the promises of God you can experience His presence and peace.

Thought For Today: Take time today to discover some promises of God. Try to remember as many of God’s promises as you can. When you pray, you can remind God of what he promised you.

Today’s Prayer Focus: Thank God for his many promises. Pray today the promises you discovered today. Remind God of His promises and claim them as yours. Continue to pray the updated prayer fuel. Deo Volente.
