

Daily Devotion For August 9, 2021

I looked and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and in front of the Lamb [who is Jesus]. . . . And they cried out in a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb" They fell down on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, saying, "Amen! Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks and honor and power and strength be to our God forever and ever. Amen!" Revelation 7:9-12

Yesterday, the Tokyo 2020 Olympics came to a conclusion with the closing ceremonies of the 32nd Olympiad. High above the Olympic stadium the Olympic flag of the 5 interlocking rings representing the five continents of Europe, Asia, Africa, Oceania, and America flew.

As the 206 nations entered the stadium it was another reminder that God has said that in heaven, there would be a great multitude of people that no one could count from every nation, tribe, people, and language standing before the throne in front of the Lamb of God who is Jesus Christ.

As the nations of the world gathered together for the closing ceremonies it was a glimpse that one day a great multitude from every nation will gather, not to celebrate their own countries but to fall down and worship the eternal God.

Thought For Today: No need to wait until we get to heaven, take time today to worship, honor and glorify the Lord.

Today's Prayer Focus: Praise God for who He is. That God so loved the world, that he gave his one and only son, that whoever believes in him will not perish but have eternal life. Review this week's updated prayer Fuel. Deo Volente.
