

Daily Devotion For February 16, 2021

“Then the king....rejected the advice of the elders.” 2 Chronicles 10:13

Every day we make choices and decisions. Tragically, many people fall victim to their own bad decisions. Some people turn their backs on what is right or what is best and decide instead on what is wrong or will bring them harm. Only afterward do they realize their bad decisions result in bad consequences.

King Rehoboam stubbornly rejected the wise advice of his nations elders and instead followed those who told him what he wanted to hear. As a result conflict broke out and the nation of Israel was divided. Rehoboam lost the kingdom. Galatians 6:7 says, “Whatever a man sows, that also will he reap.”

Thought For Today: Life is filled with decisions, some minor and some life-changing. As Christians we are to seek God’s will in every decision. Pray, turn to the scriptures, seek the wise counsel of friends, and ask the Holy Spirit to guide you. What decisions are you facing?

Today’s Prayer Focus: Pray that you will make wise decisions that honor and glorify God. Take time to pray this week’s updated prayer fuel. Deo Volente.