

Daily Devotion For September 26, 2021

“Let us fear the Lord our God, who gives autumn and spring rains in season, who assures us of the regular weeks of harvest.” Jeremiah 5:24

This week on the Monterey Peninsula is the Pure Insurance Golf Tournament held at Pebble Beach and Spyglass Hills. As I was watching the coverage on the Golf Channel, Lanny Wadkins the commentator remarked, “I’ve played golf all over the world, but the Monterey Peninsula is the most beautiful place I’ve been.”

When I heard that it caused me to think, do I really appreciate that I live on the Monterey Peninsula. Am I taking all the beauty of the peninsula for granted?

It is sad, but often times we forget about the wonders of God’s creation. We take for granted the scenic beauty that people from all over the world come here to enjoy. We take for granted the Pine, Oak, and Cypress trees. The white sandy beaches that meet the shoreline.

Jeremiah 5:24 pleads with us to remember the source of blessings, that everything we enjoy comes from the hand of God. The seasons, the rains, the harvest are all blessings from God.

Today’s Thought And Prayer Focus: Like me, do you take the beauty of God’s creation for granted? If so, take time today to praise and thank God for being the God of creation who created all things for us to enjoy. Also, don’t take for granted the privilege of prayer. Deo Volente.
