

Daily Devotion For July 16, 2021

¹³ Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand." Ephesians 6:13

Do any of you remember what this past Sunday's message was about? It was on putting on the full armor of God.

This armor is made up of the belt of truth, the breastplate of righteousness, the firm footwear of the gospel of peace, the shield of faith, the helmet of salvation and the sword of the spirit which is the Word of God. This is the armor that we have received from Christ himself and is our protection from the attacks of our enemy Satan. So my message on Sunday was that just as we get dressed each day to remember to get dress and put on the full armor of God.

As you have gone through this week, have you remembered to get dressed with God's armor? If you have, then in God's strength you will be secure against the attacks of the enemy. If not, you may have found yourself facing temptations and trials to turn your focus away from God. That is the evil scheme of the Devil.

Thought For Today: The attacks of the enemy and evil are unavoidable. Therefore, remember to put on the full armor of God today. Remember to put on God's armor today!

Today's Prayer Focus: Thank God that He is the source of our protection against the enemy. Continue to pray this week's prayer fuel. Deo Volente.
