"For the Lord is not willing that any should perish but that everyone come to a saving knowledge of Christ." 2 Peter 3:9

As I have been watching the remembrances of the 20th anniversary of the September 11th attack on the United States by Al Qaeda, I was impressed by the dedication of the Firefighters, Police officers, and volunteers who were sifting through the rubble of the WTC, the Pentagon, and the field in Somerset Pennsylvania seeking to find one more person to save. They were on a rescue mission to find those who were hurting and suffering and needed to be saved.

At that time, no one was asking how much is this going to cost. No one was asking are the victims democrats or republicans. The purpose of the recovery efforts was to find one more person to be rescued and saved.

As Christians we too are on a rescue mission. We have the opportunity to go out into the world where people are hurting, suffering, and rescue them from the penalty of sin and death.

Thought For Today: Who do you know that needs to be rescued from the consequences of sin and death? Who do you know that needs to be saved? Will you be on a rescue mission for them so that they can be saved and spend an eternity with God in heaven?

Today's Prayer Focus: Pray for those you know who need to be saved and rescued from hell. Thank God that He is not willing that any should perish but that everyone come to a saving knowledge of Jesus. Continue to pray this week's prayer fuel. Deo Volente.
