By You I have been upheld from birth My praise shall be continually of You. — Psalm 71:6

Yesterday during our fellowship time it was mentioned that three people in our church family recently had or were having birthdays. Adele Kageyama, Lyle Quock, and George Wooding. We wish them all a very Happy Birthday!

Do you remember any of your childhood birthday's? As a child, perhaps you remember the excitement, the balloons, gifts, and cake. But now as we grow older, that same excitement may have waned. A few weeks ago when I celebrated my 67th birthday but I was hobbling around because of a leg injury. But as hard as it is to face birthday's as we grow older, we should be grateful that at least we are growing older. Over the past year I heard of several people who I grew up with or who are younger than me who had passed away.

Thought For Today: God gives us birthdays, anniversaries, and even New Year's to think and ponder about our lives. It is a time to be reminded of God's faithfulness. They remind us of how God has been with us through the years.

Today's Prayer Focus: Take time to thank God today for his faithfulness and that God has been with you through the years. Review this week's updated prayer fuel and select a few prayer points. Deo Volente.
