Psalm 90

The Stewardship Of Time

I. Introduction:

Stewardship encompasses our attitude towards God in which we recognize that everything we have comes from God and belongs to God.

A Question: How can we honor God with the time we have?

II. The Bible and Time:

- Jesus was never in a hurry
- Psalm 90: A Psalm of Moses that contrast the brevity of human existence in comparison to God's eternity.

¹ Lord, you have been our dwelling place throughout all generations. ² Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God. ³ You turn men back to dust, saying, "Return to dust, O sons of men."
⁴ For a thousand years in your sight are like a day that has just gone by, or like a watch in the night. (Ps. 90:1-4)

¹⁰ The length of our days is seventy years or eighty, if we have the strength; yet their span is but trouble and sorrow, for they quickly pass, and we fly away. (Ps. 90:10)

III. The Word TIME

T _____

“¹² Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.” Ps. 90:12

I _____

¹⁰ God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them.” Hebrews 6:10

M _____

Be very careful, then, how you live not as unwise but as wise, ¹⁶ making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil.” Ephesians 5:15-16

E _____

“What is the chief end of man?
(Westminster Confession)

The answer: To Glorify God and enjoy him forever.

IV. Conclusion:

Time is God’s Precious Gift. Thank God for this gift. Pray about how you can be a good steward of your time.
