

Daily Devotion For October 1, 2021

You are from God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world." 1 John 4:4

Yesterday I saw a blind man who was walking across the street with a white walking stick. I was thinking to myself, if I should help him cross the street. But in a moment, while I was wondering what to do, he started walking across the street with a bold confidence as if he were quite used to doing things on his own.

Another thing that caught my eye about this man was that he was wearing a T-Shirt that read, HE > I. I'm sure that you have seen this sign on T-Shirts and as car bumper stickers.

It is taken from the above scripture in I John 4:4 where John wrote that Greater is Jesus who is in you, than the devil that is in the world."

Yes, God is in Heaven -- but that is not the only place He is. By the Holy Spirit, God dwells in everyone who has received Christ into their hearts and lives as Savior and Lord. Satan may be seeking to tempt you, but the presence of Christ in us can help us overcome those temptations.

Thought For Today: Knowing that God lives in us and loves us can banish all fear we have in our lives. God can help you deal with any temptations that the devil seeks to bring your way.

Today's Prayer Focus: Thank God for his presence in your life and that he can help you find victory over any temptations that Satan seeks to bring your way. Continue to pray this week's prayer fuel. Deo Volente.
