“This is what the Lord Almighty declares, “Return to me and I will return to you.” Zechariah 1:3

During my years as a Christian I have seen many Christians backslide. We don't use the word “backslide” as much as we used to but even sincere Christians can fall away from the faith and revert back to their old ways and act as though Jesus no longer means anything to them. It was heartbreaking for me several years ago to see the Christian roommate who led me to faith in Christ fall away from the faith divorcing his wife for another woman.

Why does this happen? Sometimes it is because their faith wasn't real and they never committed their lives to Jesus in the first place. Hebrews 3:12 says, “See to it, brothers, that none of you has a sinful, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God.”

When Christians backslide, Satan rejoices. The good news is that God loves the backslider and stands ready to forgive.

Thought For Today: Guard against backsliding in your faith, but if you do, return to God and He will return to you.”

Today's Prayer Focus: Do you know any backsliding Christians? Remember them in prayer today. Continue to pray this week's prayer fuel. Deo Volente.
