

Daily Devotion For January 6, 2021

¹¹ I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances.¹² I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. ¹³ I can do all this through him who gives me strength.”
Philippians 3:11-13

During Christmas I received a gift card to Amazon. Every day I would go online to search the website for something that I needed or wanted. After searching for a week I told Sherry, I don't need anything and asked if she wanted the gift card. Sherry said she didn't need anything either and so we ended up using the gift card to buy food for Huey.

After thinking about it, I feel so blessed that God has supplied so abundantly for Sherry and me. In a time when so many people are out of work and struggling financially we have everything we want and need.

Paul wrote in Philippians 3:11-13 that he had learned the secret of being content in any and all circumstances:

Thought For Today: In this season of Covid-19, have are you learning the secret of being content with any and all circumstances? What are you most thankful for?

Today's Prayer Focus: Take time to thank God for the countless blessings you have in Christ. Continue to pray this week's prayer fuel. Deo Volente.
