

Daily Devotion for June 8, 2020

“For my house will be called a house of prayer for all nations.” Isaiah 56:7

It is difficult to escape the news of the past 2 weeks. Protests, lootings, shootings, vandalism, and such sorrow and grief at the killing of George Floyd on the streets of Minneapolis. Protest have taken place not only in the US but also in many cities across the world as global citizen have said enough is enough and that Black Lives Matter. Add to that, the continued rise in Covid-19 cases and it is evident to see that our nation and our world is in need of prayer.

The prophet Isaiah spoke 2500 years ago that the church of God, God’s People, God’s House, should be a house of prayer for all nations. The year 2020 is a defining moment in the life of the US and for the world around us. This is the opportunity for the church to intercede on behalf of our world to make the necessary changes that will bring about liberty and justice for all. Let’s pray that we will be the church.

Thought For Today: How much time do you spend praying for our nation and the nations of the world? Take time to today to pray for our nation and the nations of the world. Pray Psalm 89:14 that righteousness and justice will be accomplished.

Today’s Prayer Focus: Pray that El Estero will be a house of prayer for all the nations! Download the updated prayer fuel for the week beginning June 8th. Select several prayer request and add them to your daily devotional time. Have a blessed week!