

Daily Devotion For April 17, 2021

"Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you." Ephesians 4:32

Yesterday as I was going for a walk, I saw a homeless man get up from lying down on a bus bench and then take several minutes to wipe it down and clean it up. I thought that was a very thoughtful gesture on the part of that individual.

Thoughtfulness comes in many forms, and is virtually always welcomed by its recipients. Thoughtfulness is a habit—a way of life that is well worth cultivating and practicing. A thoughtful person is quick to pay a well-deserved compliment, send a prompt note of appreciation or to do good to others.

Thoughtful people create opportunities to make life brighter, smoother, and more enjoyable for those around them. Our thoughtful attitudes and generous deeds can make many people happy including ourselves. Being thoughtful is being kind, it is being loving, it is being "as Jesus" to people.

Thought For Today: What can you do today to show acts of thoughtfulness and kindness to those around you?

Today's Prayer Focus: Pray that the Lord would help you to be loving, kind, and thoughtful today. Continue to pray this week's prayer fuel. Deo Volente.
