

Daily Devotion For January 27, 2021

“Draw near to God and he will draw near to you.” James 4:8

Yesterday I went to CVS to pick up some prescription medicine. There were about 6 people in front of me and all were following the social distancing protocols and standing on the electrical tape signifying the specified distances. However right behind me there was an elderly man who was only 2 feet away from me. I wanted to turn around and say to him, “you are in my space!” How funny that in the midst of all of these covid-19 rules that I had become so possessive and protective of “my space.”

All this made me think about how glad that God never says to me, “you are in my space.” Rather God says, “Draw near to me and I will draw near to you.” (James 4:8). “The LORD is near to all who call upon Him, To all who call upon Him in truth” (Psalm 145:18).

Thought For Today: God is as close and near to you as you desire him to be. How close will you allow God to get to you today?

Today’s Prayer Focus: Continue to pray this week’s updated Prayer Fuel. Deo Volente.