

Daily Devotion For June 22, 2020

10 For my determined purpose is that I may know Him [that I may progressively become more deeply and intimately acquainted with Him, perceiving and recognizing and understanding the wonders of His Person more strongly and more clearly], and that I may in that same way come to know the power outflowing from His resurrection [^[b]which it exerts over believers], and that I may so share His sufferings as to be continually transformed [in spirit into His likeness even] to His death.” Philippians 3:10

The above verse is one of my all time favorite verses. In this verse the Apostle Paul speaks of his purpose in life, that to know Christ and the power of His resurrection. My life's motto is "To know Christ, to continually grow in the knowledge of Christ, and to sow seeds of God's love that will be a blessing to others." When I think of the life of Paul, he gave up everything for the sake of knowing Christ, his family, his friends, and his freedom.

Thought For Today: When you think about it, what are you willing to give up in order to know Christ. Whatever it is, knowing Christ is more than worth the sacrifice. This coming week, how will you seek to know Christ in a deeper more intimate way?
