14 I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus." Philipians 3:14

On Wednesday, the University of Mississippi (Ole Miss) Women's Golf team won the university's first Women's National Championship defeating Oklahoma State 4-1 in the final match.

One of the star golfers from Ole Miss, Julia Johnson wrote down 5 goals in 2017 as an entering Freshman. Her written goals were 1.) To become the Southeastern Conference freshman of the year, 2.) to win the SEC team championship, 3.) to be the SEC player of the year, 4.) to be a first-team All-American and 5.) for Ole Miss to win the national championship. Julia Johnson said that everyday throughout her 4 year college career she would focus on achieving those goals. Through her victories and defeats, she never lost sight of those goals. As Julia Johnson won her closing match she accomplished all five of her goals.

In Philipians 3:14, the apostle Paul spoke about his goal in life and that was to know Christ and to be more like him. Paul was determined to do everything he could to keep that as his focus.

Thought For Today: What are or have been your goals in life? How are you doing in achieving those goals. Is one of your goals to know Christ and be more like him? Take time today to examine your life purpose and goals. Can you say that your goals are similar to that of the apostle Paul's?

Today's Prayer Focus: Pray that you would keep your eyes focused on Jesus, to know him, love him, and follow him with all your heart, mind, soul, and strength. Continue to pray this week's prayer fuel. Deo Volente.
