

Daily Devotion For March 2, 2021

“Remember the wonders he has done, his miracles, and the judgments he pronounced,” Psalm 105:5

Yesterday, March 1st marked the 6 year anniversary since coming to El Estero as the Stated Supply Pastor. Driving home from my vacation yesterday, I had the opportunity to reflect upon how blessed I have been in my 32 years of pastoral ministry and to see the faithfulness of God leading and guiding me.

I had the privilege and opportunity to spend 15 years as an intern and pastor at the Christ Presbyterian Church of Hollywood, 11 ½ years at the Wintersburg Presbyterian Church in Santa Ana and 6 years at El Estero.

Sunday’s message by Pastor Mark Hollingworth was a wonderful reminder of our call as Christians. Believe the Gospel, Live the Gospel, and Share the Gospel. I thank God that for over 45 years now, 32 as a pastor that I have had the opportunity to share the gospel and to see hundreds of people pray to receive Christ.

Thought For Today: Anniversaries are special because they place you in a position of reflection. As you reflect upon your years as a believer, what are you most thankful for? In what ways do you believe, live and share the gospel?

Today’s Prayer Focus: Pray for Gary and Annie Kageyama whose granddaughter Krista is expecting baby Haven any day now. The pregnancy has had some complications and baby Haven will be only 5 lbs at full term. Pray for Haven, Krista and family. Continue to pray the most recent prayer fuel. Deo Volente.
