“Jesus Christ declared with power to be the Son of God by the Resurrection of the dead.” Romans 1:4

The Derek Chauvin case went to the jury yesterday. After weeks of hearing testimony from numerous experts and witnesses the case is now in the hands of the jury. The responsibility of the jury is now to weigh the evidence and come up with a verdict to declare the defendant either innocent or guilty.

Now, the nation and the world awaits the verdict. In 1975 Josh McDowell an atheist sought to disprove the resurrection of Jesus Christ. As he examined the evidence he was converted to Christ and wrote a book entitled, “Evidence That Demands A Verdict” in which he shares the reasons why he converted to the Christian Faith.

In the 1800’s another atheist, a lawyer by the name of Simon Greenleaf sought to use his legal back ground to disprove the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. In examining the evidence he came to the same conclusion as Josh McDowell and converted to the Christian Faith. He later founded Harvard Law School.

Thought For Today: Through the centuries, many have examined the evidence and came to the conclusion that Jesus Christ truly is the Son of God. Have you examined the evidence? On what basis do you base your faith in Christ? Who do you say that Jesus Christ is?

Today’s Prayer Focus: Thank God for the life, death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus. Praise God that Jesus is the Son of God. Take time to review the updated prayer fuel. Deo Volente.
