

Daily Devotion For April 27, 2021

“Suffer hardship with me, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. No soldier in active service entangles himself in the affairs of the everyday life.” 2 Timothy 2:3-4

Yesterday I had the opportunity to spend time with Major Daniel and Chie Zuniga hiking around Point Lobos and having lunch. The Zuniga’s leave on Sunday May 9th for their next assignment in Washington D.C. Even though they are leaving the Defense Language Institute I’m grateful that we can still connect and fellowship with them for our Sunday Worship service via zoom.

As we were having lunch, I had the opportunity to pray for them. Throughout the years of my pastoral ministry, I have tried to remember to pray for those in our armed forces. I think growing up one block from the DLI and having come across a lot of Military Kids in elementary, Jr. High and High School years I saw how difficult it is to be an MK. One day they were in school, playing football and the next day they were being transferred to another assignment.

Thought For Today: Paul said in 2 Timothy 2:3-4 that as good soldiers of Christ we are to suffer hardship. In what ways have you or are you suffering for Christ? In what ways do the men and women who serve in our armed forces suffer hardship?

Today’s Prayer Focus: Take time to remember the Zuniga’s, Malayang’s, Krieger’s, and others you may know who are serving our nation. Continue to pray the updated prayer fuel. Deo Volente.
