

Daily Devotion For March 29, 2022

¹⁷ Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows.” James 1:17

A few days ago, I received a check from Monterey Peninsula College (MPC). When I got the check I was wondering if it was some sort of scam. I was thinking about throwing the check away because I couldn't think of any reason why the college should give me money. Good thing I didn't. At my swim class, I was asking some of the other students if they received a check. They told me that the check was given to all students who had received their Covid-19 vaccinations when they registered.

The check from MPC was a nice surprise and came totally unexpected. As I cashed the check, I thanked the Lord. James 1:17 tells us that ¹⁷ Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows.” As God's children, God has many surprises in store for us.

Thought For Today: When was the last time you received an unexpected surprise? Did you recognize that it was a gift from God? I believe that God has many surprises in store for us today and I even think that it is okay to expect them. Watch today for those unexpected surprises!

Today's Prayer Focus: What are you thankful today? Take time to thank God for those gifts. Deo Volente.