“Jesus is the same yesterday, today, and forever.” Hebrews 13:8

Yesterday morning at Bible Study, Ellie Hattori shared with us, how quickly her life changed when Rick suddenly fell ill. Watching the continually story of the Ukrainian people suddenly forced to flee their homeland there were stories of a newlywed couple saying good-bye as the husband was now going off to fight for his country. Another story showed a mother who had just given birth and now wondering what kind of world her child will grow up in. How quickly life can change!

Change can be exciting, such as starting a new job, moving into a new home, or even starting a new semester in school. However, change can also be hard when we don't want it.

Ecclesiastes 3:1 says, “There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens.” If God has allowed a change in your life, let that change motivate you to draw closer to Him and to His Word. Let Him be your refuge, your comfort and your strength.

Thought for Today: Are you going through a period of life where you are dealing with change? Ask God to teach you what it means to trust him and carry you through your season of change.

Today's Prayer Focus: Thank God that while change can be hard, we can grow in our faith when we learn to embrace it. When we trust God's plan, He transforms us each and every day as His followers. Deo Volente.
