

Daily Devotion For March 3, 2022

"You gave abundant showers, O God; you refreshed your weary inheritance" (Psalm 68:9).

The forecast for today is supposed to be rainy. I saw on the news that today's high will be 57 degrees but there is a 70% chance of rain this evening. The winds will be out of the East of between 5-10 miles per hours.

As have had very little rain since January 7th and until last week, this has been one of the driest February's on record. When it rains, it is interesting to see our cat Huey, sit on the window sill and watch the rain. He's fascinated by it! I wonder if Huey recognizes that the rain and winds show us God's power.

One thing about rain is that it reminds us of God's love. The reason is because we cannot live without rain. Rain provides the nourishment for vegetation to grow. It washes away the dirt so that when the sun comes out everything is clean.

The Psalmist prayed for God's Spirit to rain down on him! Psalm 68:9 helps us to appreciate God's rain.

Thought For Today: Do you recognize rain is an expression and reminder of God's love for you? Take time today to ask the Lord to open the heavens and rain down upon your life to cleanse and nourish your soul.

Today's Prayer Focus: Praise God that He is the God of all creation. A God of great power and might. Pray that the Lord would rain down his love upon your loved ones. Thank God that Seon Hashimoto's biopsy came back negative for cancer. Deo Volente.
