

Daily Devotion For July 28, 2022

Fire shall be kept burning on the altar continually; it shall not go out."
Leviticus 6:13

In my daily devotional yesterday, I mentioned about praying for Beth Pratt who lives in Midpines at the heart of the Oak Fire, just outside of Yosemite National Park. She is in pre-evacuation mode and is ready to leave at a moment's notice.

Back in the 1970's when I first accepted Christ it used to be common for people to refer to a committed Christian as being "on fire for the Lord." I don't hear that phrase much anymore but as followers of Jesus, we need to keep our spiritual fervor and zeal going for God.

In the Old Testament, God provided his people with priests who had to keep the fire of the burnt offering going. The aroma rose into the heavens twenty-four hours a day seven days a week.

Thought For Today: Reflect upon the fire of your spiritual life. Is it ablaze or merely burning embers? What can you do to rekindle the fire of your faith and keep it burning bright for God.

Today's Prayer Focus: Pray that the Lord would kindle a flame in your spiritual life that will spread like a wildfire for His Glory. Deo Volente.
