

Daily Devotion For February 28, 2022

⁶ You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come.”
Matthew 24:6

As we look at the state of world affairs as Russia has invaded Ukraine, some people are asking the question, “Is there any significance to all of this prophetically? Is this the end times? I always believe that each day we are one day closer to the second coming of Christ.

In Matthew 24:6, Jesus warned that in the end days there will be “wars and rumors of war.” Matthew also talks about plagues in the last days as we have seen in the global pandemic due to the coronavirus.

The bible also speaks of a world leader that will come and seek to dominate and deceive people and will be known as the anti-Christ. Many biblical scholars see Russia as Magog in Ezekiel 38 that will one day attack Israel.

Jesus warned us that when we see and hear of wars and rumors of war and of plagues and the rise of the anti-Christ that we do not fear or panic. Jesus said in such things must happen before the end times.

Thought For Today: Bible prophecies are being fulfilled in our lifetime. It seems like we’re seeing more things happen in real time, closer together, as the Scripture said they would be. What should we do? We should look up, and remember that God is in control. And we’ve read the last page of the Bible, the last page of Revelation, and we win in the end.

Today’s Prayer Focus: Keep praying for the people of Ukraine. They’re going through a time of great suffering right now. Pray that God gives to our leaders wisdom as they’re making very important decisions in the days ahead. Deo Volente
