

Daily Devotion for March 18, 2022

“He who has done it unto the least of these has done it unto me.” Matthew 25:40

Yesterday as I was watching the news coverage of the devastation of Ukraine, watching the buildings in ruins and even more tragic, the devastation of the people of Ukraine and their lives in ruin, the Holy Spirit seemed to be saying to me, “Ted, when you stand before God and he asks you, “what did you do to help the people of Ukraine, what will you say?” A week earlier I had donated to Franklin Graham’s ministry “Samaritan’s Purse”, but watched the overwhelming need of the Ukrainian people, I was convicted by the Holy Spirit, I felt that I should do more.

So, I went online again and made another contribution. I think that many people are wondering, “what can I do?” “How can I help?” While there are many worthy organizations to donate to, Samaritan’s Purse goes in the name of Jesus to demonstrate the love and compassion of Jesus.

Thought For Today: When you stand before the Lord, and he asks you, what did you do with the gifts I gave to you, what will you say? If you are thinking and praying about how you might help the people of Ukraine, may I suggest Samaritan’s Purse. You can find more information about their ministry at Samaritanspurse.org

Today’s Prayer Focus: We praise God that Rick Hattori’s biopsy came back negative with no trace of cancer! Continue to pray for the Ukrainian people and God will miraculously protect their people. Thank God for answered prayer. Deo Volente.
