“Lord, you have been our dwelling place throughout all generations.
2 Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the whole world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.” Psalm 90:1-2

Helen Nakano celebrates her 90th birthday today! She and her daughter Shari will graciously provide our congregation with a light lunch and entertainment to celebrate this special and significant day in her life.

Thank God that Helen believes in God, the Bible, and has expressed her faith in Jesus Christ as her Savior. I think Psalm 90 is an appropriate Psalm for Helen today. It speaks of how God has been our dwelling place through all generations.

Like all of us, Helen’s life has not always been easy. She has endured many ups and downs and tribulations, yet her faith has allowed God to be her home, a place where she could find refuge in times of trouble. Psalm 90:2 tells us that “From everlasting to everlasting you are God.” Christians find a home in the Lord Jesus, whose presence is a shelter even as life changes. Jesus promised, “If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him” (John 14:23).

Thought For Today: Are you having stress, anxieties, and trouble? Make God your dwelling place, your home, that place in which you can find refuge.

Today’s Prayer Focus: Praise God that he is from everlasting to everlasting, and infinite and eternal God. Pray for Helen Nakano as she celebrates her 90th birthday. Rejoice with Kiku Kuwatani as she comes home today after nearly a month at CHOMP. Deo Volente.
