

Daily Devotion For November 9, 2022

“Only I can tell you the future before it even happens. Everything I plan will come to pass, for I do whatever I wish.” Isaiah 46:10

As of the writing of this daily devotion, the results of many of this year’s Senate, House, and Gubernatorial elections are still up in the air. I’m sitting at my desk wondering how this year’s elections will turn out and how they will affect our country. Despite this uncertainty, one thing I do know is that God is sovereign.

The sovereignty of God is one of the most comforting facts we can take from the Scriptures. God is sovereign and is always in control. God states in Isaiah 45:6-7, “so all the world from east to west will know there is no other God. I am the Lord, and there is no other. I create the light and make the darkness. I send good times and bad times. I, the Lord, am the one who does these things.”

Whether we choose to accept Him or not, Jesus is the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, Ruler of Rulers, and the Supreme Sovereign over all things. For believers, God’s sovereignty is so great that we are asked to trust and act according to his will at all times. Yet, as believers, our faith can be put to the test in times of Global conflicts, natural disaster, or personal affliction. Sickness, suffering, and sorrow may cause us at times to doubt that God is in control. It is in these times we must learn to obey Proverbs 3:5 and “Trust in the Lord with all your heart; do not depend on your own understanding.”

Thought For Today: How do the 2022 midterm elections affect you? Can you still trust in God despite who is in Office? What does it mean to you that God is sovereign over your life’s circumstance’s.

Today’s Prayer Focus: Continue to pray for our nation and for our elected officials. Prayers for Judy Yamashita’s family at the passing of her brother Stanley. Deo Volente.
