

Daily Devotion For November 14, 2022

<sup>6</sup> Jesus *said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father except through Me." John 14:6

Last week I attended a graveside service for a long-time resident of Monterey. This person, to the best of my knowledge was not a Christian nor did he attend church. At the service several people spoke about the deceased saying, "he is in a better place now." I understand that when a person dies, it is hoped that those words will bring a sense of comfort and peace to the deceased loved ones. I also think that is a common belief that many people have about the afterlife.

However only for those who have trusted and believed in Jesus that those words can bring true comfort and peace. The Bible says there is only one way to heaven and that is through personal faith and trust in Jesus Christ alone for salvation. Jesus said that he was the way to God. That he was the way of salvation.

Thought For Today: Have you trusted in Jesus Christ for your salvation? It is not by being good or doing good works, it is through faith in Jesus Christ alone. Who can you tell today or this week about Jesus?

Today's Prayer Focus: Give thanks to God for your salvation. Take time to pray for family members and friends who are not Christians. Pray that they would come to know Jesus as the way to heaven. Deo Volente.