

Daily Devotion For September 12, 2022

¹⁶ All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, ¹⁷ so that the servant of God^[a] may be thoroughly equipped for every good work." 2 Timothy 3:16

Are you ready for some football!! Yesterday was the first Sunday of the 2022 National Football Season. The 49ers went down to the Chicago Bears in a windy and rainy day. I wonder, how will the 49ers do this year. Jimmy Garoppolo is no longer the starting quarterback being replaced by Trey Lance.

Coming out of the preseason, all of the NFL teams have put in a lot of hard work. Each Team member must memorize the playbook that the coaches have put together, filled with hundreds of plays for every situation that might arise. If a player forgets the play or fails to execute the play as it has been designed, the team will fail to score. The play book is the pathway to victory, a brilliant plan, one that when followed correctly can lead the team to a score and hopefully a win.

As Christians, we also have a playbook, it is called the Holy Bible! It is an inspired playbook designed to help us to be victorious in life. Like the team playbook, there is knowledge and wisdom for every situation.

Thought For Today: How will you rely upon God's Playbook today and this week? How are you doing in memorizing God's playbook. What play will you memorize today?

Today's Prayer Focus: Continue to pray for the many in our church family who are in need of God's strengthening and healing touch. Pat Wong, Bob McIntyre, Alan Durant, and Tom Gunter. Deo Volente.
